

May 2010 Budget Update

Presented by the Australian Capital Territory State Chapter

Wednesday, 19 May 2010

Dixon Advisory Board Room

Level 1, 73 Northbourne Avenue, Canberra City

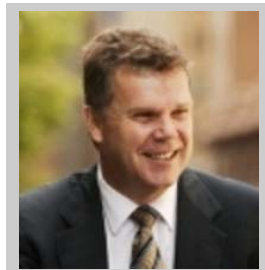

3.00pm - Case study | 3.30pm—5.00pm Presentation

Session Outline

The first half-hour session will be focussed on a case study.

Secondly, Peter Hogan will present his essential May Budget Update which will include technical information on the Federal budget and its ramifications for you as a professional in the SMSF industry.

Presenter Profile

Peter Hogan has been involved in the financial services industry for over 26 years, working in government, accounting, actuarial and financial services companies. He specialises in advising on tax and superannuation issues generally, assisting financial advisors and accountants with complex strategy and regulatory requirements and also advising his financial planning clients.

Peter is a Director of the SPAA National Board and also is an Adjunct Lecturer for Adelaide University in their Masters program.

He was formerly head of Technical Services at Colonial First State for seven years and was Head of Technical Services at Macquarie Bank for five years before that. Peter is now the Principal at Chatswood office of Avenue Capital Management where he provides general financial advice to client and specialist advice as a consultant in Self Managed Superannuation.
